

About us

Ulsorb.com is a B2B market place designed to mitigate the pressure and the time retailers use to go to wholesale shops to buy goods, by creating a medium through which retailers will transact directly with their preferred wholesale shops while they still sit in their shops serving customers.

Wholesalers may fill an online form which may be followed by a request to upload products on Ulsorb.com, Approval will be granted after a thorough inspection of all necessary requirements.

Retailers can conveniently make purchases from their homes, shops, anywhere and it will be delivered right at their door step.
